ORDER

MARGARET M. GARNETT, United States District Judge:

John H. Shen-Sampas, proceeding pro se, filed the instant suit on March 6, 2025. Dkt. No. 1. In the Complaint, Plaintiff asserts claims of defamation against Defendant and seeks a total of $20 million in compensatory damages and $10 million in punitive damages. Id. Federal jurisdiction in this Court is asserted based on the Parties' diversity of citizenship. Id. at 2. However, it is clear from the Complaint that venue is not proper in this judicial district.

A civil action may be brought in "a judicial district in which any defendant resides" or "a judicial district in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred, or a substantial part of property that is the subject of the action is situated." 28 U.S.C. § 1331(b)(1)-(2). "[I]f there is no district in which an action may otherwise be brought," a civil action may be brought in "any judicial district in which any defendant is subject to the court's personal jurisdiction." 28 U.S.C. § 1331(b)(3).

The Court notes that, according to the Complaint, Defendant is located in Philadelphia, PA, which is in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. Dkt. No. 1 at 5. There is no suggestion in the record that any substantial part (or any) of the events giving rise to Plaintiff's claim occurred in the Southern District of New York. See 28 U.S.C. § 1331(b). Moreover, Plaintiff specifically alleges that the events that are the bases for his claims occurred in Philadelphia, PA and he invokes Pennsylvania law. See Dkt. No. 1 at 5, 6.

Courts are permitted to transfer a civil action to any other district "where it might have been brought," for the "convenience of parties and witnesses, and in the interest of justice[.]" 28 U.S.C. § 1404(a). In this case, the facts asserted by Plaintiff show that the case "might have been brought" in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. Therefore, the Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to TRANSFER this case to the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.
